INSTRUCTIONS

- DO NOT WRITE ANYTHING OR ANY SYMBOL ON THIS EXAM PASS EITHER RELATED OR NOT RELATED TO THE EXAMINATION.
- You must check Official Notice Boards for any official changes to your examination timetable at least one day before any of your scheduled examinations. Candidates who miss examinations because they did not consult the final examination timetable shall be given a zero "0" grade in that course.
- You must take your examinations only in the venues specified on your final examination timetable unless otherwise authorised by the Chief Invigilator. Failure to observe this rule without prior authorisation shall lead to your disqualification from that examination and the award of a zero grade "0" in that course.
- You must bring your EXAM PASS and LUANAR IDENTITY CARD to each examination.
- You must arrive at the examination room at least thirty minutes (for the MAQ, HALL and CAFE) and 20 minutes (for the other venues) before the commencement of the examination.
- You must indicate your correct examination number and candidate name on your answer book. Failure to do this shall lead to the award of a zero grade "0" in that course.
- You must not bring any materials or electronic devices into the examination room except those authorized by the Examiner. Possession of any restricted item in the examination is a serious examination misconduct.
 - Unauthorized materials include, but are not limited to: books, class notes and aid sheets.
 - Unauthorized electronic devices include, but are not limited to: cellular phones, laptop computers, programmable calculators, MP3 players, Personal Digital Assistants ("PDA" such as a Palm Pilot or Blackberry), pagers, electronic dictionaries, Compact Disc Players, Mini Disc Players, Smart Watches and Smart Glasses.
- You must not communicate with another candidate nor give/receive anything in any manner whatsoever during examinations.
- You must not copy or attempt to copy from another candidate or deliberately allow another candidate to copy from you.
- You must obey all instructions given to you by the Chief Invigilator.
- You shall be liable for disciplinary action if you are suspected of any examination misconduct. All materials and/or devices that are found to violate any examination rules and regulations will be confiscated.
- You (or your class representative) must obtain clearance from the Director of Students Affairs before you miss any examination on health or bereavement grounds prior to the administration of the affected examination. For health related cases, you must provide a formal bed rest document with a specified period of time issued by the College Clinic or other recognised Medical Service providers.
- A LOST, DAMAGED OR INVALID EXAM PASS SHALL BE REPLACED AT A COST OF MWK 2, 000.00 PER COPY.
